A New Combination.

A Lexington saloonist was arrested last Sunday for selling pint bottles of whisky snugly tucked in the center of loaves of bread. A combination, as it were, of "the staff of life" and the "oil of joy," says the Maysville Ledger.

Second Called Meeting.

There will be a meeting of Paris High School graduates at the Court house at four o'clock on July 2, in the interest of the proposed Alumni Association. We hereby cordially extend an invitation to every one to be present and hope that all local graduates and as many others as can will respond to this called meeting. We hope to perfect all arrangements and plan for future union. Knowing that we have the pledge of our faithful Superintendent and others to stand back of us in this movement, let us loyally assist in building up a strong organization that will redound to the best interests of our school. The outlook seems most successful for the coming year and in our new school building or elsewhere our first Alumni Banquet will be, we assure you, "a thing of joy forever." We cordially ask you to come.

What Mitchell Says:

Every day we hear some customer say about like this:

"Well, this certainly is the best Ice Cream Soda I ever drank" or "you can go anywhere you please and you will never get Cream like this."

If you have been eating or drinking in my store you know how good it is.

If you have never been fortunate enough to enjoy my cold drinks and ices, you have missed real enjoyment and you can't afford to deny yourself the pleasure for the price it costs.

Yours Truly,

C. B. Mitchell
